Invitation

Two weeks ago I received a phone call from a friend inviting me out to dinner. We gather several times a year to break bread and I look forward to our time together. In this weekend's Gospel there is another invitation. Jesus invites several men to follow him. Some heard of Jesus and that he might be the Messiah. The invitations were met with a simple yes and they followed Jesus. This is where my comparison ends. Accepting an invitation from Jesus is very different than "breaking bread with a friend." For the disciples who accepting Jesus' invitation, it was a radical change! Of course, they had little or no idea just how radical their "yes" would mean, but they did accept. The challenge for all of us this week is to re-commit ourselves to following Jesus. It could mean saying "no" to stuff on the internet or "yes" when you would rather rest than help your children with their homework. You know the deal! When you do re-commit I guarantee you that "Breaking Bread" will have a whole new meaning.
