Many years ago on one of my Mission trips to Ecuador, I was assigned to volunteer at a leper section of a hospital in Tegucigalpa. The ward had about 30 residents. There was a cut in the bottom of the door where food trays were shoved through. These folks were segregated from everyone. I found peace there. In spite of being segregated they were loving and caring. For one week we bonded (each patient was medicated and were not contagious). I asked the question: Why were they not allowed in society? Misunderstanding and prejudice! The same thing took place in this weekend's Gospel: misunderstanding and prejudice. The lepers in this weekend's Gospel were not the only ones in need of healing, those who judged them need healing too. How about you? What kind of healing do you need?

Lenten Scripture Series at Good Shepherd Church

Rev. Connell A. McHugh, Pastor Emeritus of Good Shepherd, will for the 18th consecutive year offer a series of Scripture presentations in the church hall for 5 consecutive Wednesdays beginning on February 21. The presentations will begin at 9 AM and Fr. McHugh's topic will be the Gospel of Mark. He will treat the identity of Mark, sources and date composition of the Gospel, major themes, Jesus' healing ministry, titles of Jesus in Mark, the original and added ending of the Gospel, theological ideas in the Gospel, The Messianic Secret, etc. Father McHugh will show how Mark's Gospel stresses the humanity of Jesus more than any other Gospel, his Passion Narrative, the most sorrowful and how Mark is the chief source for the Gospels of Matthew and Luke. A special session will be held on Mark's Passion Narrative. The scripture sessions are open to the public free of charge. Because of the large attendance at these sessions, we ask that you register since notes will be provided. You may register by calling the office at 570-788-3141 or by stopping in the office.
