Most of us, myself included, give up something or do something for Lent. As a homage to my childhood I try to give something up for Lent. As an adult, I try to do something extra for Lent. The exact "give up" and "do something extra" is not important. What is important is that each of these challenge us to change. Just look at our Lenten theme: How will you be Transformed – darkness to Light? This weekend the challenge for us is deeper. Jesus knows that he has surrendered himself completely.

"I am troubled now. Yet what should I say?

Father, save me from this hour?

But it was for this purpose that I came to this hour.

Father, glorify your name."

In these last two weeks of Lent, how will you surrender yourself?

Lenten Scripture Series at Good Shepherd Church

Rev. Connell A. McHugh, Pastor Emeritus of Good Shepherd, will for the 18th consecutive year offer a series of Scripture presentations in the church hall for the next 4 consecutive Wednesdays.

The presentations will begin at 9:00 AM and Fr. McHugh's topic will be the Gospel of Mark. The scripture sessions are open to the public free of charge. Because of the large attendance at these sessions, we ask that you register since notes will be provided. You may register by calling the office at 570-788-3141 or by stopping in the office.

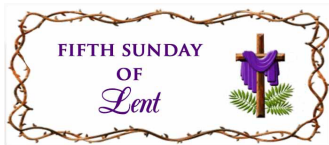

MANDATORY BAPTISMAL PREPARATION CLASS will be at 6:00 PM on Thursday, April 11th, in the lower level of Immaculate Conception Church. Use the Chestnut Street entrance (through the garden). Please plan to attend the Baptismal Preparation class well in advance of your baby's birth so that you are aware of all the information necessary to schedule your baby's Baptism.

A Charismatic Mass and Healing Service will be held at St. John Bosco Church, Conyngham on Tuesday, March 19th at 7:00 PM. Fr. Neftali will preside, and Fr. Sudhir will concelebrate. Sue Shaw will begin her Music Ministry at 6:45PM. Any questions, please call Arlene at 570-788-3643.
